

CARNAL (EXILED Book 1)

NO ONE EVER EXPECTS SOMEONE LIKE CARNAL. The rogue angel, Kellareal, stopped the genocide of a hundred and forty three human/animal hybrids who had been genetically engineered as a research experiment and spent their entire lives imprisoned. Against orders, he spirited them away to another dimension. They were given the job of protecting humans from their own hybrid experiment gone very, very wrong. When Rosie Storm asked Kellareal for a place to hide and teach her boyfriend a lesson, she thought she was getting a few weeks of tantrum-fueled asylum. The last thing she was expecting was to be the accidental architect of a war. Or to meet someone like Carnal. New York Times and USA Today bestselling author, Victoria Danann, introduces a groundbreaking paranormal romance series about a genetically altered new species.
