

One True Mate 1: Shifters Sacrifice

An all-shifter police force has been the only thing between humans and an unknown evil for centuries, but the clan is in danger of dying if they don't find mates soon. This will be a full novel. I'm not sure exactly where it will land but probably somewhere around 60K words. All books in the series will be full size novels. Trevor Burbank is a shifter cop in a world of humans who don't know the evil that wants them dead or in chains. If he does his job well, the humans will never need to know, but he feels like he's working against the clock, because his clan is about to die. The females have all been killed, and the half-breeds they make when they mate with humans aren't skilled or strong enough to keep the all-shifter police force running at levels that will successfully subdue the evil demon they face. Gabriela Carmi has lost almost everything that means anything to her way too fast and now she feels like she's losing her mind too. On a quest to find something that won't reveal itself to her, she feels as if she's pining for someone who may not exist. So when an evil presence begins to follow her, she isn't sure if her mind is slowly falling apart, or if the impossible is actually coming true. And when an instant attraction sparks between her and the handsome police officer sent to help her, it makes matters worse and better at the same time. Can Gabriela hold on to her sanity as the world seems to crumble around her? And when she discovers something about herself that threatens to destroy her, will her unknown past tear her present apart? It's a race against time to find the angel/human hybrid One True Mates that the clans' spiritual leaders say truly exist. Saving the clans is on everyone's mind, except for the chosen, the One True Mates, most of whom don't even know who or what they really are.
