

His Forever Sub (Club Alpha Cove Book 9)

Iliana Wolf was underfoot in the club wherever Ryder Whitmore turned. He was irritated, he was annoyed, and he was aroused - all the time. There was something about her that called out to him and he found it hard to resist. As a successful businessman, he knew how to deal with people and as the Club Manager and Senior Master at Club Alpha Cove, he knew how to handle women. Hed had more than enough little pets in his bed as proof of that. Now, he ran across one woman he didnt know how to handle. He kept pushing her away with one hand and dragging her back with the other. Iliana wanted Ryder from the first moment she laid eyes on him and made her intentions clear, willing to fight for what she wanted. She was a tough cookie in the boardroom and had brought grown men to their knees many a time. But there was something missing in her life. She needed more, she needed to let go of being tough and let someone else be in charge. She believed Ryder was the man to take full control of her. What followed was an emotional rollercoaster filled with swirling emotions, insecurities, and Ryders past, which tore them apart. Would he be able to rebuild the bridge that he destroyed with his actions? Moreover, would Iliana believe him? And what about the Syndicate? How far will they go this time to obtain their primary goal? Taking over Davids Island. This is a standalone, full-length novel.
