

Hot Vampire Kiss (Vampire Wardens 1)

This is the first book in a hot, erotic vampire series. Explicit -- hot! -- In blood they will find destiny and the eternal bond of passion. About the series: The Wardens series begins with the three Brooks brothers, Evan, Aiden, and Troy. They were early settlers of the town of Braunfels, Texas. When the town was haunted by a series of brutal animal attacks, that left a half-dozen townsmen murdered, the Brooks brothers took things into their own hands. Armed and ready for action, they set out into the wilderness, determined to find this animal and kill it. What they found was a female vampire who decided the brothers were scrumptious morsels, worth keeping around for a lifetime. She attacked the brothers and turned them to vampires. No sooner did she turn them, though, than another vampire appeared and killed her. This vampire declared himself a Warden of the Vampire Council. Wardens uphold the rules of the Vampire race and report to the Council. Killing a human is punishable by death and their Maker had broken that rule. The brothers were then taken to the Council, where they were taught how to survive without killing, how to mingle with humans as if one of them, and when to move on from a location so that they would not be suspected as vampires. Most importantly, they learned who their enemies were and how to defeat them. In the end, the brothers were granted a financial dowry that had belonged to their Maker and given the choice of freedom, under Council rule, or an alternative to become Wardens. Now, the brothers travel together as Wardens, tracking outlaw vampires, killing them and protecting innocent humans. It is their eternal duty.

She drew her hand forward, red pooling on her index finger, a splinter of wood sticking out from the red center. Instant lust fired through Evan as he took the opportunity presented and snatched the splinter away before he drew her finger to his lips. The sweet taste of her blood exploded on his taste buds, filling him with lust, desire fueling the sexual side of his vampire nature, when he already wanted this woman to the point of white-hot demand. His gums tingled, his recessed cupid's threatening to extend. His eyes met hers, the scent of her arousal, the taste of her blood, seeping through him with a demand that he claim her, claim satisfaction. Somewhere in the back of the bar a door slammed shut. The sound was a jolt of reality that shook Evan just enough to calm the beast inside him threatening to take control of him, of her. Slowly his tongue swirled around her finger, and then he released it, inspecting the area where the splinter had been. All better, he said. A stunned look etched her features. I was right, she whispered. His brows dipped, Right? When I said I should be afraid of you, she explained. Because there is no way that what you just did should not bother me but it He leaned close, sliding his face against hers, his lips near her ear, his mouth far too close to the vein he hungered to puncture for his own good most certainly for her own good. And yet, he found himself asking, Aroused you? She drew a breath. Yes.
